(U) Menifee – Teen Arrested for Allegedly Threatening School Shooting, Possession of 'Ghost Gun'

(U) California police have arrested a 17-year-old who allegedly threatened a school shooting on social media. The teen, a student at Heritage High School in Menifee, California, about 75-miles east of Los Angeles, allegedly sent messages on social media that he planned to shoot "up a school" and "kids," according to a statement from the Menifee Police Department. The threats did not mention a specific school, police said. In addition to the threats of violence, the teen had allegedly been harassing students and was in possession of a "ghost gun," a privately manufactured firearm that is untraceable, police said.
